P2 Workshops

The Waste Reduction Policy Act (WRPA) requires pollution prevention planning for some facilities,* but how do you get the most from your Pollution Prevention (P2) plan? If you are composing a new P2 plan or renewing your P2 plan, you have an opportunity to:

- Save Money
- Reduce your Regulatory Burden
- Increase Efficiency

About the Workshop

This workshop will give you strategies on how to improve efficiency while decreasing or eliminating pollution. Experts in pollution prevention, Environmental Management Systems (EMS), environmental regulations and energy efficiency conduct an interactive workshop with classroom exercises that will help you use P2 strategies to improve your bottom line.

In past years, workshop participants reported savings of over $200,000 by implementing pollution prevention practices; they eliminated over 11,000 pounds of pollution and reported improvement in compliance, energy use and water conservation.

Who Should Attend

This workshop will benefit individuals from large and small companies. It is geared towards:

- Environmental, Health and Safety Managers
- Plant Managers
- Production Personnel
- Engineers or Related Professionals

Facilities that are Large Quantity Generators, Small Quantity Generators of hazardous waste, or facilities that report on the Toxics Release Inventory (TRI) Form R are subject to WRPA regulations.*
