

CDBG-DISASTER RECOVERY VOLUNTARY BUYOUT PROGRAM FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Turn in the intake application form and all required documents and City staff will determine if you are eligible for the program. If approved, the City will use an appraiser to determine the value of your home. However, any disaster payment you have received (like FEMA payment) will be deducted from your value. You will also be paid for the Fair Market Value minus any disaster payments you received. You may also be eligible for relocation assistance.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- If your household income is below 80% of the area median.
- If you are disabled. If you are a single-parent household.
- If you are of racial or ethnic minority.
- If you are a veteran. If you are elderly.
- If you have children under the age of 18 in the household.

SOME RULES:

- No rental properties
- No second homes, if you've purchased another home, you are not eligible.
- If payments from FEMA covered all your losses, you are not eligible.
- You need to be a U.S. Citizen or legal resident.
- Every household's situation is different. Call and speak with City staff if you have questions about your eligibility.
- Home must have experienced repetitive loss/severe repetitive loss due to storm event(s).
