Air Installation Compatible Zones (AICUZ) surround Naval Air Station Corpus Christi, Cabaniss, and Waldron Auxiliary Landing Fields. AICUZs are designed to reduce noise levels and safety hazards created by military aircraft operations. The government retains influence on land use within these zones to safeguard public safety, health, welfare, and to ensure the installations operational capabilities.