Homeschool Days

February 28
2019
9am-12pm

All Things Turtle

We are going to dive into specific biology about these fabulous creatures. What is the difference between turtles, terrapins, tortoises and sea turtles? How have these strange creatures survived in such a variety of ecosystems? We'll explore the fascinating migrations of sea turtles. We will even dissect a freshwater turtle.

- This homeschool day is open to up to 40 students.
- Each date is $5 per child and registration is separate for each event.
- Target age range for the activities is ages 8-12. Though students outside of this age range are welcome to attend, the material may not be as ideal, our instructors will do their best to include all students as they can.
- Online registration is required for each date individually at <http://register.ccparkandrec.com>.
